Harry M. Klenda

1969–1970

Doctor Klenda, of Wichita, Kansas, became the one-hundred-and-sixth president of the Association at the 1969 meeting in New York City. This was a joint meeting with the Fédération Dentaire Internationale.

Doctor Klenda, a general practitioner, served as president of the Kansas Dental Association, the Seventh District Dental Society, the Wichita Dental Society and the American Academy of Dental Practice Administration. He was a member of the ADA Council on Dental Trade and Laboratory Relations for several years. Doctor Klenda was widely known as a lecturer on dental practice management. He was born in Kansas in 1907 and died in 1971.

Four students at Kent State University in Ohio were killed May 4, 1970, by National Guardsmen at a demonstration protesting the United States incursion into Cambodia. Biafra surrendered after a 32-month battle to secede from Nigeria. The legal voting age was lowered from 21 to 18. A postal reform measure was enacted, establishing an independent United States postal service.
