ADA Statement About Unite Here Hotel Worker Strike in Honolulu

HONOLULU (Oct. 17, 2018) – The American Dental Association (ADA) is aware of a strike taking place at four hotels in Honolulu, Hawaii, site of the ADA's 2018 Annual Meeting. The ADA respects the right of hotel union members to strike in a civil manner and does not intend to become involved in a labor dispute.

The ADA meeting brings more than 16,500 registered attendees and guests to Waikiki. Our focus is to provide world-class continuing education for dental professionals and a positive experience for those who have travelled to the meeting.

About the American Dental Association

The not-for-profit ADA is the nation's largest dental association, representing more than 161,000 dentist members. The premier source of oral health information, the ADA has advocated for the public's health and promoted the art and science of dentistry since 1859. The ADA's state-of-the-art research facilities develop and test dental products and materials that have advanced the practice of dentistry and made the patient experience more positive. The ADA Seal of Acceptance long has been a valuable and respected guide to consumer dental care products. The monthly The Journal of the American Dental Association (JADA) is the ADA's flagship publication and the best-read scientific journal in dentistry.
